

Friends of the Library & Gallery

The Friends of the Library & Gallery share a mutual interest in the continuing development of the collections and programs. The Friends contribute invaluable support for the general collection, the Special Collections, the Library Gallery, and cultural programs. Volunteers assist in organizing events and publications, participate in the Library's outreach to the community, raise funds, and may serve on the Friends Council, which governs the organization.

Join the Friends of the Library & Gallery by completing and returning our membership form. Certain in-kind contributions will also qualify one for membership. All gifts are used to enhance the collections and programs of the Library & Gallery.

Membership in the Friends of the Library & Gallery bestows these privileges:

- the use of all Library collections on-site
- the use of many library services and online materials on-site
- for Patron-level members and above: borrowing circulating materials (except Media and Leisure Reading collections) for one year from date of donation

Members and their guests are invited to events sponsored by the Friends, as well as to all exhibitions and cultural programs sponsored by the Library & Gallery.
