Administrative/Biographical Note

- 1966 The UMBC Faculty, under the direction of Dr. Albin Owings Kuhn, created an Ad Hoc Committee on Faculty Organization in order to develop a permanent faculty organization at UMBC.
- 1967 The first Plan of Organization laid out a governing structure. There were to be two governing bodies in addition to a Student Government Association (SGA): the UMBC Assembly, which was to be the general electorate, and the UMBC Senate, which represented the Assembly. The Assembly was composed of faculty, full-time employees, and full-time visiting faculty. Its main functions were to initiate discussions on any matter of concern to UMBC; to act as a referendum body on questions raised by the Senate; and to receive general information from the vice president of UMBC, the Senate, and other members of the academic community. UMBC Senate's functions included making recommendations to university administrators; reviewing the actions of the Faculty Senate and the SGA; establishing bylaws; formulating and recommending educational policies, as well as policies pertaining to student life and activities; and advising the University President, Vice President, and the Board of Regents. On October 3, the UMBC Assembly held their first meeting. The Assembly elected a Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Assembly and six members at large.
- 1968 The Organizational Committee recommended that students participate in UMBC governance. Four student members began serving on the UMBC Assembly and the UMBC Senate.
- 1971 The Teaching Evaluation Committee was created to develop measures for the effectiveness of teaching.
- 1976 The UMBC Senate created an Ad Hoc Committee on Governance to evaluate the structure of governance at UMBC and to make recommendations to the faculty and the Board of Regents for reforming that structure. The Committee's final report came in the Fall of 1976.

- May 1980 The Professional Associate Staff Senate (PASS) was created. PASS represented the interests and concerns of the associate staff at UMBC and formulated policies with regard to associate staff personnel. The Faculty Senate replaced the UMBC Senate, which ceased to exist. The Faculty Senate had the authority to formulate policies with regards to faculty promotion, tenure, retention, rules and regulations. The Faculty Senate oversaw a number of committees including the Academic Planning and Budget Committee, the Faculty Affairs Committee, and the Research Council.
- September 1, 1980 A new Plan of Organization went into effect. There were now three representative bodies: Faculty Senate, SGA, and PASS. A Steering Committee consisted of representatives from all three of the representative bodies. The SGA consisted of elected members who represent all undergraduate students enrolled at UMBC. It could formulate policies regarding budgets for funds and governance of clubs and student associations. The Plan of Organization also laid out roles for University Committees.
- 1981 The UMBC Faculty Senate recommended to President John Dorsey and Board of Regents that UMBC's library be named in honor of Dr. Albin O. Kuhn, upon his retirement.
- 1987 The Classified Staff Senate was formed with the mission of reviewing academic policies and practices as they affect the classified staff; promoting an improved work environment; and enhancing morale among classified staff.
- 1994 The Faculty Senate approved a motion supporting the principle of full representation of UMS faculty on the Board of Regents.
- 1997 The Board of Regents established the Regents' Faculty Awards to recognize distinguished performances of faculty members.
- 2002 A proposal was originated to organize a Paraprofessional Staff Senate. The purpose was to represent the interests and concerns of all of the excluded Non-Exempt staff who did not have any other means of representation at UMBC before the initiation of the proposal.

Records include, but are not limited to, meeting minutes, transcripts, agendas, correspondence, bylaws, recommendations to the UMBC administration, committee reports, budgets, and election materials.

The UMBC Assembly (Series I) and the UMBC Senate (Series II) were the first two governing bodies at UMBC. Some notable topics addressed in these two series are governance, academic policies and programs, promotion and tenures, and faculty regulations. In 1980, UMBC governance underwent a shift. The Faculty Senate replaced the UMBC Senate. The records of the Faculty Senate (Series III) include information on such topics as athletics, the Library, minority affairs, tenure, pay, academic planning, and budgets.

The Classified Staff Senate began in 1986. Topics covered in this series (Series VII) include staff awards, the Honors Task Force, development, and collective bargaining.

Audio-visual recordings of the UMBC Senate are available from approximately May 1977 through September 1974, the Faculty Senate from approximately September 1980 through December 2009, and the Research Council are available from approximately March 2002 through September 2009. Records on zip disk and CD contain minutes and files relating to the Faculty Senate, the Academic Policy and Budgeting Committee, the Faculty Affairs Committee, and the Research Council.
